

Birthday Party Activities

Beads: Make a necklace, bracelet, or anklet out of beads of various shapes, sizes, and colors.

Bookmarks: For all those bookworms out there, now you have the chance to make your very own bookmark.

Buttons: Use a variety of materials to create your own personal button to pin onto a backpack or jacket.

Chalk & Pastel Drawings: Use chalk and oil pastels to create vivid drawings on dark colored paper.

Clothespin dolls: Make your own doll using a wooden clothespin, fabric, yarn, and other materials.

Crayon Resist Drawings: Using colored and black crayons and a scratching tool, create a beautiful resist drawing.

Crowns: Use lick and stick paper, markers, and sequins to decorate your paper crown to your heart's content.

Face Painting: From hearts and stars to animals, this birthday party activity is always a hit!

Lick and Stick Pictures: This paper will stick to anything once you lick it, and with 10 various colors, the possibilities are endless!

Masks: Use sequins, markers, paper, and other materials to create a paper theater-style half-face mask.

Magic Nuudle Sculptures: Fashion a picture or sculpture from colored cornstarch packing peanuts.

Popsicle Stick Puppets: Decorate special popsicle sticks in the shape of people to make a puppet.

Puzzles: Use markers to decorate a blank white puzzle, then take it apart and see if you can put it together again!

Sculpey Clay: Create a small bead or figurine out of this clay, we bake it, and you take it home!

Silly Putty : Use glue and Borax to make slimy, ooey, gooey silly putty in many different colors.

Tissue Paper Flowers: Choose one or more colors to make beautiful, gigantic tissue paper flowers.

Thumbprint People: Make colorful thumbprints with washable ink, then use markers to turn them into people, animals, and more.

Twisteez: Twisteez are colorful craft wire that you can bend and twist, mold and shape, to make amazing creations.

Wands: Children get to make and decorate their very own magic wands.

Wiki Sticks: These wax craft sticks can be shaped to make colorful sculptures and pictures on paper.